

All People That On Earth Do Dwell

Louis Bourgeois, 1510-1561

Old 100th
L.M.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in the key of D major. The treble staff begins with a treble clef and a sharp sign for the key signature. The music features a series of chords and single notes, with a fingering of '5' indicated above the fourth measure. The bass staff begins with a bass clef and a sharp sign for the key signature, featuring a series of chords and single notes.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece with two staves, treble and bass clef, in the key of D major. The treble staff begins with a treble clef and a sharp sign for the key signature. The music features a series of chords and single notes, with a fingering of '10' indicated above the first measure. The bass staff begins with a bass clef and a sharp sign for the key signature, featuring a series of chords and single notes. The system concludes with a double bar line.

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His folk, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise;
Approach with joy His courts unto;
Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good;
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.
