

I can sing now the song

R. Kelson Carter

The first system of musical notation consists of five measures. It features a treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The melody is primarily composed of eighth and quarter notes, often beamed together. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system of musical notation consists of four measures, starting with a measure number '6'. The musical style continues with similar rhythmic patterns and chordal accompaniment as the first system.

The third system of musical notation consists of four measures, starting with a measure number '10'. This system introduces a vocal line in the treble clef, marked with a fermata over the final note of the first measure. The piano accompaniment continues in the bass clef.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of four measures, starting with a measure number '14'. It concludes the piece with a final chord in the bass clef and a fermata over the final note of the vocal line in the treble clef.

I can sing now the song
Of the blood-ransomed throng
In my soul there is peace, rest and calm;
I am free from all doubt,
And I join in the shout,
I'm redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

Refrain

*I'm redeemed (I'm redeemed), I'm redeemed,
Jesus saves me and keeps me just now,
Hallelujah, And I join with the throng round the throne
In the song, I'm redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.*

Oh! I know I'm alive
In the Lord, and I strive
Unto blood with the sin that would damn;
As I walk in the light
There is strength for the fight,
I'm redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

Refrain

I have grace for the day,
I have help for the way,
There is healing and comforting balm;
For my sickness there's health,
For my poverty wealth,
I'm redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

Refrain

In the storm and in the night,
In the midst of the flight
Jesus puts in my hand vict'ry's palm;
Overcoming all foes,
In the Lord I repose,
I'm redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.

Refrain
