The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats. The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some chords. A fermata is placed over the fifth measure of the treble staff, with the number '5' written above it.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece with two staves, treble and bass clef, in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats. The melody continues with quarter and eighth notes. A fermata is placed over the tenth measure of the treble staff, with the number '10' written above it.

Jesus the good Shepherd is;
Jesus died the sheep to save;
He is mine, and I am his;
All I want in him I have,
Life, and health, and rest, and food,
All the plenitude of God.

He in sickness makes me whole,
Guides into the paths of peace;
He revives my fainting soul,
Stablishes in righteousness;
Who for me vouchsafed to die,
Loves me still, - I know not why!

Jesus loves and guards his own;
Me in verdant pastures feeds;
Makes me quietly lie down,
By the streams of comfort leads:
Following him where'er he goes,
Silent joy my heart o'erflows.

Love divine shall still embrace,
Love shall keep me to the end;
Surely all my happy days
I shall in thy temple spend,
Till I to thy house remove,
Thy eternal house above!
