

I've reached the land of corn and wine

John R. Sweney, 1837-1899

Beulah Land

The image shows a piano accompaniment score for the hymn 'I've reached the land of corn and wine'. The score is written in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The first system ends at measure 5, the second at measure 10, the third at measure 15, and the fourth at measure 20. The score includes various musical notations such as chords, eighth notes, and rests. A 'Refrain' section is indicated by a bracket and a fermata-like symbol above the staff at measure 10.

I've reached the land of corn and wine,
And all its riches freely mine;
Here shines undimmed one blissful day,
For all my night has passed away.

Refrain

*O Beulah Land, sweet Beulah Land,
As on thy highest mount I stand,
I look away across the sea,
Where mansions are prepared for me,
And view the shining glory shore,
My Heav'n, my home forever more!*

My Savior comes and walks with me,
And sweet communion here have we;
He gently leads me by His hand,
For this is Heaven's border land.

Refrain

A sweet perfume upon the breeze,
Is borne from ever vernal trees,
And flow'rs, that never fading grow
Where streams of life forever flow.

Refrain

The zephyrs seem to float to me,
Sweet sounds to Heaven's melody,
As angels with the white robed throng
Join in the sweet redemption song.
