The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The music features a melody in the upper staff with several triplet markings (indicated by a '3' above the notes) and a bass line in the lower staff with a triplet marking near the end of the system.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has three flats and the time signature is 4/4. The melody in the upper staff continues with triplet markings. The bass line in the lower staff consists of chords and single notes.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and the lower staff is in bass clef. The key signature has three flats and the time signature is 4/4. The melody in the upper staff continues with triplet markings and a measure marked with the number '10'. The bass line in the lower staff continues with chords and single notes.
