

Father of all! whose powerful voice

J. H. Schein, 1586-1630
arr. by J.S. Bach, 1685-1750

Eisenach
L.M.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in the key of D major (two sharps). The treble staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps, and a common time signature. The melody starts with a quarter note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a half note B4. The bass staff begins with a bass clef, a key signature of two sharps, and a common time signature. The bass line starts with a quarter note G2, followed by a quarter note F2, and then a half note E2. The music continues with various chords and intervals across the system.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It begins with a measure number '4' at the start of the treble staff. The treble staff continues with a melody of quarter and half notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a final chord in the treble staff.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. It begins with a measure number '7' at the start of the treble staff. The treble staff features a melody that includes a half note G4 and a half note A4. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment. The system ends with a final chord in the treble staff.

Father of all! whose powerful voice
called forth this universal frame;
whose mercies over all rejoice,
through endless ages still the same:

Thou by Thy word upholdest all;
Thy bounteous love to all is showed,
Thou hear'st Thy every creature's call,
and fillest every mouth with good.

Giver and Lord of life, whose power
and guardian care for all are free,
to Thee, in fierce temptation's hour,
from sin and Satan let us flee.

Thine, Lord, we are, and ours Thou art;
in us be all Thy goodness showed.
Renew, enlarge, and fill our heart
with peace, and joy, and heaven, and God.

Father, 'tis Thine each day to yield
Thy children's wants a fresh supply;
Thou cloth'st the lillies of the field,
and hearest the young ravens cry.

On Thee we cast our care; we live
through Thee, who know'st our every need:
O feed us with Thy grace, and give our souls this day the living bread.
