God Holds the Key to all Unknown

God holds the key of all unknown, And I am glad; If other hands should hold the key, Or if He trusted it to me, I might be sad, I might be sad.

What if tomorrow's cares were here Without its rest! I'd rather He unlocked the day; And, as the hours swing open, say, "My will is best, My will is best."

The very dimness of my sight Makes me secure; For, groping in my misty way, I feel His hand; I hear Him say, "My help is sure, My help is sure." I cannot read His future plans; But this I know; I have the smiling of His face, And all the refuge of His grace, While here below, while here below.

Enough! this covers all my wants, And so I rest! For what I cannot, He can see, And in His care I saved shall be, Forever blest, forever blest.
