

Who is this so weak and helpless

Welsh Melody

Llansannan
87.87.D

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in a 4/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some chords in the bass line.

The second system of musical notation continues the melody from the first system, starting with a measure number '5' above the treble clef. It maintains the same 4/4 time signature and key signature.

The third system of musical notation continues the melody, starting with a measure number '10' above the treble clef. It concludes the piece with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Who is this, so weak and helpless, child of lowly Hebrew maid,
Rudely in a stable sheltered, coldly in a manger laid?
'Tis the Lord of all creation, who this wondrous path hath trod;
He is God from everlasting, and to everlasting God.

Who is this, a Man of sorrows, walking sadly life's hard way,
Homeless, weary, sighing, weeping, over sin and Satan's sway?
'Tis our God, our glorious Savior, who above the starry sky
Now for us a place prepareth, where no tear can dim the eye.

Who is this? Behold Him shedding drops of blood upon the ground!
Who is this, despised, rejected, mocked, insulted, beaten, bound?
'Tis our God, who gifts and graces on His church now poureth down;
Who shall smite in righteous judgment all His foes beneath His throne.

Who is this that hangeth dying while the rude world scoffs and scorns,
Numbered with the malefactors, torn with nails, and crowned with thorns?
'Tis the God who ever liveth, 'mid the shining ones on high,
In the glorious golden cit
