

Jesus comes with power to gladden

William J. Kirkpatrick, 1838-1921

The image shows a piano accompaniment score for the hymn 'Jesus comes with power to gladden'. The score is written in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It consists of five systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The first system starts with a treble clef and a bass clef, with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 4/4. The music is in a simple, homophonic style. The first system ends with a measure containing a fermata and a '7' below it. The second system starts with a measure containing a fermata and a '7' below it, and ends with a measure containing a fermata and a '10' above it. The third system starts with a measure containing a fermata and a '15' above it, and ends with a measure containing a fermata and a '15' above it. The fourth system starts with a measure containing a fermata and a '20' above it, and ends with a measure containing a fermata and a '25' above it. The fifth system starts with a measure containing a fermata and a '30' above it, and ends with a measure containing a fermata and a '30' above it. The word 'Refrain' is written in the middle of the third system.

Jesus comes with power to gladden, when love shines in,
Every life that woe can sadden, when love shines in.
Love will teach us how to pray, love will drive the gloom away,
Turn our darkness into day, when love shines in.

Refrain

*When love shines in, when love shines in,
How the heart is tuned to singing, when love shines in,
When love shines in, when love shines in,
Joy and peace to others bringing, when love shines in.*

How the world will grow with beauty, when love shines in,
And the heart rejoice in duty, when love shines in.
Trials may be sanctified, and the soul in peace abide,
Life will all be glorified, when love shines in.

Refrain

Darkest sorrow will grow brighter, when love shines in,
And the heaviest burden lighter, when love shines in.
'Tis the glory that will throw light to show us where to go;
O, the heart shall blessing know, when love shines in.

Refrain

We may have unfading splendor, when love shines in,
And a friendship true and tender, when love shines in.
When earth's vict'ries shall be won, and our life in
Heav'n begun,
There will be no need of sun, when love shines in.

Refrain
